SUBJECT Yugoslav Communist Activities in Argentina
25X1A

1. The Cominform adherents among Yugoslav immigrants in Buenos Aires are making a determined effort to unite and organize youth movements in Argentina.
2. Yugoslavia Libre, a pro-Cominform organization, recently appointed Rudolf Marmolja to visit Yugoslav colonies in the interior. He presided over the inauguration of a new Communist youths' library in La Plata to be called "Arsa Jovanovic", in honor of a former Yugoslav chief of staff who was reported by Tito's official news agency to have been shot while attempting to flee from Yugoslavia.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
